Knowing exactly what college tennis coaches are looking for can make the tennis scholarship process a lot easier for women's tennis recruits. NCSA's tennis recruiting guidelines can help you decide the level of competition that you're best suited for. The guidelines also give a tennis recruit an overview of how many tennis scholarships and college tennis programs are out there to choose from (in the NCAA, NAIA and NJCAA).

Knowledge is an extremely important tool in the tennis recruiting process. Learn from NCSA's guidelines and make the job of finding a tennis scholarship a little easier.
